

1st IPCE Conference and 42° Congresso SICC Stresa Convention Centre

18-20 June, Lake Maggiore (VB) Italy

SKIN CARE MAKEUP SUN CARE and More!

The Italian and US/Canadian Societies of Cosmetic Chemists, with the endorsement of the Japanese Society, will come together on the beautiful Lake Maggiore in Stresa, Italy, to open a wide window on the Cosmetic Science & Technology World!

From June 18-20, 2017 at the Stresa Convention Centre, International Scientists will showcase their cutting-edge research on three main personal care disciplines: Makeup, Skin Care and Sun Care

HIGHLIGHTING THE SCIENTIFIC PROGRAM

The Scientific sessions will feature a set of top level Lecturers such as:
Luigi Rigano, Miki Minamino, Fujihiko Kanda, Peter Tsolis and many others.

A focused “windows on the world” exhibition will run along the Conference sessions, highlighting the latest technologies from leading Cosmetic Companies.

Two main educational courses, led by distinguished scientists, will be at the center of this event with an aim of training attendees on emerging scientific disciplines of interest to Cosmetic and Personal Care industry professionals.

- Molecular Biology and Gene Expression for the Cosmetic Chemists
Howard Epstein, PhD.
- Skin Lipids: Essential Role of Lipids on Skin Health
Apostolos Pappas, Ph.D.; Johnson & Johnson

A Round Table on Regulatory differences between Europe, the States and Japan, will complete the program, with participation from the regional Regulatory Offices.

HIGHLIGHTING THE SOCIAL AND CULTURAL PROGRAM

The Organizing Committee has prepared a first class in-Conference and Post-Conference Social and Cultural program that matches the exceptional quality of the Scientific program!

Next to the scientific sessions and courses, the social program during the 1st Intercontinental Personal Care Excellence Conference allows delegates and their accompanying person(s) to experience the cultural pearls of Northern Italy. In addition to the conference social program, a number of interesting post-conference options gives attendees the opportunity to explore the wonderful sites of the region and participate in unique events close to the enchanting atmosphere of June on Lake Maggiore. Amongst them include:
